SEVENTH AND EIGHTH GRADE STATIONERY LIST- 2008

Blue or black pens (Erasable are fine)
Pencils
Red pen
12" ruler, with centimeters also
Calculator
Highlighter
Honors Math only- Dry Erase markers (Not Crayola)

7 regular copybooks - not spiral edged, not perforated; these can be purchased outside of school; the marble copybooks with the heavy covers work well and last all year.
1 each for: math, religion, reading, language arts, science, music/computer, and social studies.

* 2 small copybooks: one for math (all groups) and the other for music, listening- must be purchased at school (may continue to use last year's)
*1 small assignment book – must be purchased at school

Pencil case
School bag
Loose leaf (Theme tablet), if not purchased at school please make sure that it is wide (not college) ruled
8 folders (3 test folders, 3 personal folders, 1 for tech/music, 1 for library)
Bible* (This was purchased in sixth grade. If it needs to be replaced it must be purchased at school, $5.00)
A BOX OF TISSUES (Another box will be required after January 1st.)
Scotch tape

It would also be helpful if you have a stapler (and staples) to use at home.

Art:
Crayons (24)
scissors
fine-tipped and thick-tipped magic markers
white glue or glue stick cloth to cover the desk
a plastic SHOE BOX to hold all these supplies; please mark your name on the end of the box.

Stationery will be sold on the first day. Seventh and eighth grade students should be prepared to buy any supplies that they do not already have by that day.

All textbooks and workbooks must be covered by September 8, 2008.

All covers must be kept neat and clean. Any supplies that are written or drawn on will need to be replaced.